CAMP RIGOLO Student Behavior Agreement

Our utmost priority is the safety and well-being of the campers. With this in mind, we require safe and responsible behaviors from all children who choose to participate in the camp. There are three rules that all campers must follow:

Show respect and courtesy toward others.

Follow directions the first time they are given.

Help provide a good learning environment for all.

It is important that we provide a safe environment for all. The following procedures will be followed if a camper chooses to behave inappropriately:

1st encounter – An explanation to the camper specifically detailing the behavior that was inappropriate and/or unsafe.

2nd encounter – An explanation as well as a time out separating the camper from other campers in his/her group.

3rd encounter – A phone call home requiring the parent to immediately pick-up the camper.

Certain behaviors will be considered serious enough to warrant the immediate removal of the camper from camp. Examples of such behaviors include: the deliberate injury to another camper, fighting, or wandering off alone. Please discuss these behavioral expectations with your child. Sign and return the behavioral contract below with your application.

I have read the behavior expectations and agree to help make Camp Rigolo safe and fun by following the three rules listed above.
